

AUTOMOBILES FOR 1911

FORD MAXWELL

At Sensible Business Prices.

Strong team, isn't it? Hard to equal it in either Price OR QUALITY. Impossible to equal it in Price AND Quality.

You can pay for one of these machines without mortgaging your house. To insure getting them in time, order at once, as these are the fastest sellers made.

Forbes Mfg. Company

Incorporated.
HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

FIRST BLOOD FOR MOGULS

Wire Opening Exhibition Game of Season At Milford, Ill.

TOURING THIS WEEK

Will Round Up Here Next Monday For Two Weeks of Practice.

Milford, Ill., April, 24.—
The opening exhibition
game of the Hopkinsville
Kitty League team was won yesterday by the score of 2 to 0. The team plays at Terre Haute to-day and to-morrow.

Diamond Dope.

Mother Nairn has sent in the following contracts: Emil Huhn, Jim Minger, Lloyd Harshbarger, H. L. Clark; Of the above, Jim Minger is a crackerjack catcher from the Rock Island club; H. L. Clark was the premier 2nd baseman of the champion Wabash team and Harshbarger is a college student; Emil Huhn is from the Ft. Wayne club.

Mark Goldnamer, the lightning base runner and fast fielder of our club last year was billed to appear in the lineup of the Morganfield club which played Evansville League club at Morganfield Friday, but as Goldie's name does not appear among those who did special stunts, he must not have been there.

The New York papers went into "conniption fits" over Charley Street's throwing out four men, out of five who tried to steal second on Washington in a game at New York. Why that's nothing. He used to throw out twice that number any time, when he played with us.

Catcher Angemier, late of Frankfort, now with New Orleans, made a hit in a tie game with Mobile the other day that set the fans wild, at the same time catching a faultless

The first baseball fatality of the season in Canada occurred at Montreal when Charles Houle, aged fourteen, was shot by being struck on the head by a pitched ball while playing in a schoolyard.

The following have been released: Jno. O. Mace, Edgar Green, Oscar Zion, Claude Selby, Calvin Buchanan and Wm. Priser.

Think of it: First Exhibition game of the season. Hopkinsville 2, Milford 0. Good beginning and we will keep it up.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

Plaintiff Seeks Legal Separation From Husband.

Julia Lee has filed suit for divorce from Ed Lee. Plaintiff states in her petition that she was married to the defendant in Jefferson county, Ky., in 1891, where the latter now resides. She further states that they lived together until 1901, when they separated and that the said separation was not the result of any fault on her part. Plaintiff resides in this county.

NOTABLE NUPTIALS.

Goldthwaite--Russell Wedding Tomorrow Evening,
Event of the Week.

The marriage of Miss Jean Goldthwaite to Hon. S. Merrill Russell, of Elkton, at Grace Episcopal church to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock will be the principal society event of the week, owing to the high social prominence of the contracting. A brilliant reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Goldthwaite, immediately following the ceremony.

IN HONOR OF THE BRIDE

Numerous Entertainments
With Miss Jean Goldthwaite the Honoree.

Mrs. Harry I. Minty gave a euchre party last night, at "Richland," at which she was the honoree.

Mrs. Hunter Wood, Jr., entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of the bride-to-be.

The Oumswée Club gave her a towel shower Saturday afternoon, at the home of Miss Sallie George Blakely.

Miss Bet Ware gave a promiscuous shower in her honor Friday afternoon, at the home of Dr. R. W. Ware. Miss Goldthwaite received the prizes from a hamper, original verses by the donors being planned to the present and read by Miss Ware. A good many of the gifts were kitchen utensils. The guests represented the Oumswée, Shakespeare and As You Like It clubs.

Mrs. G. L. Stites entertained the Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Goldthwaite. The guests included the Bridge Club members and the bridal party.

Mrs. Jas. M. Forbes gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. M. C. Forbes Thursday afternoon, an Easter egg hunt being a feature. The presents were wheeled into the hall in a small wagon decorated with wedding bells, which included embroidered pieces, silk stockings, handkerchiefs, sofa-pillow covers, candlesticks and other articles. An interesting program was carried out and an orchestra rendered appropriate music.

McFarland-West.

Arthur O. McFarland and Miss Sarah B. West, daughter of Mrs. Nan H. West, No. 203 East 21st street, were married at the Baptist parsonage Sunday afternoon, Rev. C. M. Thompson officiating. The bride has been teaching in North Christian since her graduation in the Hopkinsville public schools last year.

Purely Personal

Mrs. Jean McCulloch, formerly Miss Martha Hardwick, of Owensboro, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Westerfield and daughter, of Sebree, who were guests of Mr. D. F. Smithson's family Saturday and Sunday, returned home yesterday.

L. H. Petree has returned from Florida, where he spent several months.

Mrs. G. W. Wharton, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wall.

Mr. Jas. B. Rogers, of Paducah, spent Sunday in the city.

Miss Emily Elliott, of Henderson, is visiting Mrs. H. I. Minty.

Miss Louise Anderson, of Clarks-ville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Roseborough.

Mrs. A. B. Anderson has returned to her home in Nashville, after a visit of several weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Gary.

Hon. Wm. D. Bouldin went over to Hopkinsville Monday taking with him our new citizen, Mr. Harlan, and showed him the sights of city life.—Trenton Progress.

Peculiar Accident.

Frightened horses dragged cannon across sleeping artillerymen in Germany and killed one of the gunners. The others were seriously injured.

J. H. Vose has been appointed sheriff of Union county, vice Will Carter, deceased.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

CAPT. STAIR GETS PLACE

Brave Young Mountain Soldier Made Adjutant's Assistant.

WELL KNOWN HERE

Wife Was Miss Dixie Kimerling, of Christian County.

A Frankfort special says the vacancy in the office of Assistant Adjutant General, from which position Capt. Robert N. Krieger recently resigned, has been filled by the appointment of Capt. William C. Stair, of Middlesboro. The appointment was announced Friday afternoon by Adj. Gen. P. P. Johnson. Capt. Stair has been captain of the company at Middlesboro and is experienced in military work. He is a young man and is said to come to Frankfort highly recommended for the place. He will begin his new duties in a few days, as soon as he can arrange to leave Middlesboro.

Capt. Stair was one of Maj. Albrecht's officers in the first night rider campaign and was a fearless and trustworthy officer. He married, about two years ago, Miss Dixie Kimerling, of this county.

NIGHT RIDER SUIT.

Lawyers Who Will Represent the Various Interests.

The suit of Mrs. Elsie G. Latham against 109 alleged night riders and the city of Hopkinsville jointly will be called at Owensboro next Monday in Federal court. The city will be represented by Downer & Russell and R. A. Miller, and the other defendants by Thos. P. Cook and John Kelly. Mrs. Latham's lawyers are W. O. Bradley and John Stites. An agreement will be made not to try at this term, but the attorneys for the plaintiff will ask for a special term in July.

SMALL BLAZE

On West Seventh Street Yesterday Morning.

The fire department was called to the residence of Mr. Samuel E. Wiley, No. 424 West Seventh street, yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock. The flames were quickly extinguished with a few buckets of water and the damage was small.

The fire was caused by a spark lodging on the weatherboarding, near the edge of the roof.

The May number of THE SMART SET comes out with a broad red stripe across the cover announcing impending changes by its new publisher, John Adams Thayer, formerly of "Everybody's Magazine" and author of "Astir," a business man's autobiography which has been hailed as the forerunner of a new era in literature. This is the last number of THE SMART SET to appear in its old dress and make-up. Mr. Thayer having found both the April and May issues already on the stocks when he secured control of the magazine in February. The June number will be the first to be issued wholly under the new regime, and important changes in appearance and improved make-up are hinted at in the department headed "Something personal," which is the mouthpiece of the publisher himself.

THE YUELL MEETING

TO NIGHT
7:30 p. m. "The Passion Play as I saw it at Oberammergau"
An Illustrated Lecture. Almost 200 reproductions in color of the finest photos of the great drama will be shown. Admission 35c. Tickets on sale at Coates Drug Co. and by the ladies of the church.

Mr. Yuell says that the pictures for this lecture are perhaps the very best of all his pictures upon all topics. This is certainly a great guarantee of the pictures of to-night to those who saw his pictures of "Quo Vadis" and "Ben Hur."

The doors will be open at 7 p. m. The meetings of Saturday and Sunday were full of enthusiasm and power for good. Twelve persons

CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES

Madero Agrees to Armistice To Talk of Peace And Joy.

THE ARMIES CONFRONT.

The Truce Ends Tomorrow And Peace is Expected.

El Paso, Tex., April 24.—After a conference with a peace commission, headed by his father, Francisco I. Madero, Jr., head of the Mexican insurrecto forces, Saturday agreed to an armistice, as a preliminary to peace negotiations with the Mexican Government. The armistice is scheduled for five days, with the provision that no military movements, in a certain zone, are to be allowed either side. Both armies at Juarez are resting on their arms.

were forward in them, the latter part to make their first public confession. The total of those who on one account and another presented themselves at the front was yesterday morning ninety-four.

Even a man who is fond of horses doesn't like to be nagged. If wishes were horses beggars would try to swap them for aeroplanes.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Given Away!

I am going to give away a Ladies' handsome work apron with every cash order of ## COAL.

Phone me your order and the apron will be sent with the coal.

FRED JACKSON,
COAL DEALER.

CUMB. PHONE 59.

HOME PHONE 15